

Question
Rating:

Mission, Uganda, Alfred Tucker - Lesson Questions

BIBLE STORY QUESTIONS

- Easy  King Mutesa of Uganda was so interested in knowing more concerning the Bible that he asked Mr. Stanley to send a message to England for missionaries. This week's stories were about two missionaries that answered the call. The first missionary not only taught King Mutesa the Bible but also did what? He was a carpenter and taught the people how to build with English tools. He also taught them how to make and repair tools.
- Hard  Alexander MacKay was the first missionary builder to help the Uganda people. How long did Alexander lovingly work with the people before any one of them came to know Jesus as their personal Lord and Savior? Six years.
- Easy  Do you remember who the first Ugandan Christian was? Sebrea, a young slave boy.
- Hard  Sebrea shared the "good news" and as a result who became a Christian? Sebrea led his old master and two of his young men friends to the Lord Jesus.
- Easy  Another man answered the call to become a missionary. Do you remember what he was before he became a missionary? He was an artist named Alfred Tucker.
- Hard  Before Alfred Tucker heard the news about the need for missionaries in Uganda he spent two years helping people in what part of England? The slums.
- Hard  Once Alfred Tucker went to Uganda what was the first thing he did? One of the first things he did was to oversee the translation of the Bible into the language of the people of Uganda.
- Easy  How did Alfred Tucker help the health of the Ugandan people? He started hospitals and clinics.
- Easy  How did Alfred Tucker help the minds of the Ugandan people? He started schools and a college.