

Question
Rating:

Mission, South Pacific, John Williams - Lesson Questions

BIBLE STORY QUESTIONS

- Hard  What country did John Williams grow up in? England
- Hard  As a young boy he loved to read about the adventures of what famous explorer? Captain Cook
- Easy  Even as a boy John Williams was skilled at what? Making tools and working with his hands
- Hard  John's desire was to become a missionary for what area? The South Pacific
- Easy  God provided John and his wife with the opportunity to become missionaries in the South Pacific. On their voyage over the ocean what did John observe and study? He learned how ships are made and navigated.
- Easy  Why did John want to leave the first island that he arrived at? Because the people there had already heard about the Lord Jesus Christ.
- Easy  John and his wife arrived at an island where they had never heard about the Lord Jesus. John not only taught them about Jesus but also helped them do what? Learn new building and printing skills
- Easy  After sharing the "good news" about Jesus at one island what was on John's heart? To tell other people on other islands about Jesus
- Easy  With the help of other people what did John do to get to the other islands? They built a ship
- Hard  For six years the ship sailed to many islands and many people heard about the Lord Jesus Christ. What was the name of the ship? Messenger of Peace