Peter And Cornelius - Lesson Questions

BIBLE STORY QUESTIONS

- Easy Peter went to visit a friend at Joppa named Simon. Simon's house was near what? The sea
- Hard At the same time at another city next to the sea a Roman Centurion named Cornelius was praying to God. How often does the Bible say he prayed to God? Continually
- Easy As Cornelius was praying to God who came to visit him? An angel
- Hard God wanted Cornelius to hear about His Son Jesus. Why would it have been strange for Peter to go and tell Cornelius about Jesus? Because Cornelius was a Gentile, not a Jew
- Easy Cornelius did as the angel told him to and sent men to find Peter. As the men came near Joppa Peter went to the roof of Simon's house to do what? Pray
- Hard As Peter was praying he fell into a trance and saw the heavens open up and what come down? A sheet full of all sorts of unclean animals. They were animals that God told the Jews not to eat.
- Hard The amazing thing to Peter is when this happened God told Peter to do what? Eat the animals
- Easy Three times God told him to eat the unclean animals. God said, "What God has cleansed, no longer consider unholy." Peter was greatly perplexed with this. But just then how many men were coming to ask Peter to go visit Cornelius? Three
- Hard The three men were Gentiles, men that Jews like Peter would consider what? Unclean
- Hard Peter now realizes that God is working to help the Gentiles. Peter goes to visit Cornelius, his family and friends. What great work does God do through Peter when he visits Cornelius? They believed in Jesus, the Holy Spirit came into their lives, and they were baptized.
